BPW Canada Convention 2010 Advertising Opportunities

Many BPW members have businesses that attract clients from across the country. Website design is one example. Your clients don't have to live in the same town or city as you. Take advantage of the BPW Canada Convention 2010 at the Horseshoe Resort north of Toronto to reach business and professional women from across the country. Advertise your business, your club, your cause or your program in our Convention 2010 Program Book.
