

Neelima Basnet
1st Vice President United Nations
BPW International
2024-2027

Neelima Basnet is an architect from Nepal with a strong commitment to environmental sustainability. She promotes and practices green and sustainable architecture, integrating environmentally responsible approaches into her professional and advocacy work.

She currently serves as First Vice President (United Nations) of BPW International for the 2024–2027 term and also holds the position of United Nations Standing Committee Chair for 2024–2027. Previously, as Young BPW International Representative (2017–2021), she played a significant role in strengthening the engagement and participation of young women within the organization.

Neelima is a dedicated advocate for the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and works to advance gender equality, women’s leadership, and meaningful participation of women in decision-making and policymaking processes. Her leadership and advocacy reflect a vision of a more inclusive, sustainable, and equitable world for future generations.
